ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR RECUSAL

Interested party Kenneth Viney filed a motion for recusal (dkt. #8130) (the "Motion") on June 25, 2020. The Motion requests recusal on the grounds that the confirmed plan fails to adequately compensate wildfire victims.

Recusal is primarily governed by 28 U.S.C. § 455, which lays out several grounds for a judge's recusal from a case. The Motion does not allege facts that comport with any of the possibilities listed, and instead takes issue with the wisdom of the court's ruling. As this is not a basis for recusal, the court hereby

DENIES the Motion.
